Kolhapur's Siddesh Sawant scored his first win of the season in the Idemitsu Honda India Talent Cup NSF 250R class by a comfortable margin. Savion Sabu from Bengaluru came in second, ahead of Hyderabad's Beedani Rajender for whom it was his first podium finish this season. Championship leader Mohsin Paramban (Mallapuram) failed to complete the race but still enjoys a 36-point cushion over AS James (Bengaluru) in the provisional standings.

Siddesh displayed his best skills on the track today and secured the first position with a total race time of 16:11.679 for 8 laps. He executed strategic maneuvers overtaking the other riders with precision, skill, and perfect timing. Following closely was Savion, the 16-year-old from Bangalore. From the start of the race, he displayed a strategic approach, pushing his limits and challenging his competitors with every lap. His aggressive racing style, combined with his strategic mind, made him secure the second position with a total race time of 15:14.661.

Finishing at third position was Beedani Rajender, the 19 year old from Hyderabad. His ability to maintain a high pace while strategically overtaking competitors demonstrated his understanding of race dynamics. He completed the 3-lap race with a total time of 15:25.784.

Race-2 (8 laps): 1. Siddesh Sawant (Kolhapur) (15:11.679); 2. Savion Sabu (Bengaluru) (15:14.661); 3. Beedani Rajender (Hyderabad) (15:25.784).
